RE: Case No.: 06-cr-1020

DATE: January 7th, 2019

Dear Judge Reade,

I am writing this letter in light of the new law passed by our President Donald J. Trump known as the First Step Act.

With this law, there are multiple items in it that I believe would pertain to me and my current case before you.

That said Your Honor, I would like to enquire of you and your legal assistance in requesting that I be appointed through your Honorable Hand and Court, the Assistance of Counsel in an attempt to perserve my rights as well as help in filing any documentation before your Honorable Court without clogging it with frivolous and repitory Motion's seeking relief if none is due me and/or my current charge and conviction.

I thank you in advance for your time in this matter as I await your response as I also pray your New Year was filled with joy and happiness. I remain respectfully yours and add if there is any other documents you are in need of my endorsement of to obtain this Counsel, please do not hesitate to contact me at the address listed above.

U.S. COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT

Case No. 06-1020

On appeal from the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, No. 05-1020. The United States District Court for the District of Columbia, in its opinion, found that the defendant, [Name], was entitled to a new trial. The court found that the government failed to prove its case beyond a reasonable doubt. The court also found that the defendant's constitutional rights were violated. The court granted the defendant's motion for a new trial. The court's decision is based on the following findings of fact and conclusions of law.
